To Attorneys.

And to whom it may concern:

I beg to call your attention to my capabilities as an auctioneer, and respectfully solicit such business as might be at your disposal. I act as referee; conduct such sales as are formally demanded in the transaction of legal affairs; make appraisements and act as administrator of estates. I have all the facilities necessary for the successful conduct of this special class of business. I am a licensed auctioneer, thoroughly familiar with all the requirements demanded in the office as such, and PERSONALLY CONDUCT all sales. In short, I will take full and complete charge of all affairs appertaining to real estate.

Real Estate Owners.

My Real Estate Department is devoted to the listing and sale of Realty, and is most thoroughly equipped. My methods are peculiarly my own and are uniformly of satisfaction to all with whom I have business relations. As in all the departments the utmost courtesy is extended to all. Special attention given to the subdivisions of outlying tracts. Twenty-five and more years experience justifies this statement.

House Renting

—AND—

Collection of Rents

In no department of the real estate business should greater caution be exercised than in these departments. EXPERIENCE, TRUSTWORTHINESS, AND AFFABILITY are absolutely necessary. Good judgment, business foresight and a devotion to the interests of my clients, while being guided by their personal preferences is my assurance I give to those placing their business in my hands.

GENERAL EAGAN GUILTY

COURT CONDEMNS HIM UPON BOTH CHARGES.

Recommends His Dismissal from the Army—A Petition Circulated and Signed in Favor of Clemency.

NEW YORK, January 30.—The Washington correspondent of the Herald telegraphs:

Commissary General Eagan will not be dismissed from the United States army. This much can be said with practical certainty. What sentence will be recommended by the Secretary of War and adopted by the President will be determined when Secretary Alger returns tomorrow from Boston. The recommendation to be made by Secretary Alger will be in line with the petition for clemency signed by a number of members of the court. It can be denied with positiveness that any recommendation for clemency was appended by the court to its finding. As a matter of fact, as the Herald stated, the court found General Eagan guilty on both charges and specifications, and recommended his dismissal. Since the finding was submitted, however, a petition for clemency has been circulated with the result that a few signatures have been obtained. Four members of the court, it is stated, declined to sign. These four are said to be Major General Wesley Merritt, president of the court; Major General Matthew C. Butler, Colonel Peter C. Hains, and Colonel George L. Gillespie.

The case is still in the hands of Judge Advocate General Lieber and Major Morrison, his assistant, who will complete their review in a day or two. The matter will then be submitted to the Secretary of War, probably through Major General Miles. A precedent for lenient action is furnished by the case of Captain Henry Romeyne, who was sentenced to be dismissed, but the President merely gave him a reprimand and permitted him to retire as an officer of the army. It is not believed the President will go so far as to merely reprimand Eagan and restore him to duty. It is generally thought that General Eagan will be suspended until his retirement in 1903.

GREAT GOLD DISCOVERY.

Said To Be the Richest in the World.

DENVER, January 30.—The greatest gold discovery ever made on the continent, perhaps in the world, is the rich find just made on the Isabella property at Cripple Creek, which caused Saturday's and today's excitement on the Denver and Colorado Springs stock exchanges. The claim of a fabulous discovery is made by men thoroughly posted, and is acknowledged over their own names. In the slope just started the company has twenty and a half feet of syvanite ore that will run into the thousands, and besides there is a streak of metallic gold from two to three inches that is 80 per cent fine.

BECAME INSANE.

During the voyage of the barkentine Archer from Honolulu to San Francisco, says the Call of February 1st, Henry Heitmann, one of the passengers, became insane. He thought the captain and crew were conspiring to kill him, and for the past nine days he has refused food. When taken ashore on yesterday he was in a very weak condition. When searched at the city hall a gold watch and chain, two checks on the Claus Speckels bank of Honolulu for $9,750, a check on the Bishop bank of Honolulu for $150, a certificate of deposit on the bank of Hawaii for $25, and $212 in cash was found on him. Heitmann is well known here. He is a musician and formerly played in the Baldwin theater. From here he went to Hawaii and joined the Royal Hawaiian band, but latterly he has been sick, and was on his way to Germany for his health.

Heitmann was, up to this fall, manager of the People's Ice Company of Honolulu.

DELINQUENT TAXES.

Why Hawaiian Tramways Company is on the List.

On the delinquent tax list appears the item, "Hawaiian Tramways Company, $795.80," and also "Wm. H. Paine, $151.75." The first item is the largest on the delinquent list, and has therefore attracted attention.

An explanation is in order. It is said that the Hawaiian Tramways Company has always been prompt in tax matters. This year Mr. Paine appeared at the office the day after taxes became delinquent and tendered the mites for the company and for himself. He was told that he was twelve hours late and 10 per cent on each item would have to be exacted, in accordance with law. The manager declined to pay, and left with the statement that he would see his attorney.

During the conversation at the tax office the assessor called the attention of the manager to the fact that the date on which taxes would become delinquent had been published at different times in certain papers of the city, the latter alleging that he did not know the date of delinquency. "I do not read them," said Mr. Paine. This explains the matter.

MOST VALUABLE VASE.

In the cathedral of Genoa there has been preserved for 600 years a vase of immense value. It is cut from a single emerald. Its principal diameter is twelve and a half inches, and its height five and three-quarter inches. It is kept under several locks, the keys of which are in different hands. It is rarely exhibited in public and then only by order of the senate. When exhibited it is suspended around the neck of a priest by a cord, and no one is allowed to touch it excepting him. A decree passed in 1476 forbids any one going too near the precious relic. A Genoese antiquary has written a book to demonstrate that this vase was one of the gifts made to Solomon by the Queen of Sheba.

A Tumor Formed

Finally It Broke Inwardly and Discharged

Trouble Began With Dyspepsia and Impure Blood

Thorough Course of Hood's Sarsaparilla Completely Cures.

There is danger in impure blood. Disease and suffering are surely coming to those who neglect this threatening symptom. Read this:

"Gilliam, Missouri.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "Gentlemen:—My troubles began with nervous headaches, which would last me for two or three days. The doctors pronounced my trouble dyspepsia, but they could not do anything for me, and advised a change of location. At the age of 55 a tumor formed on my spine, which

Was Very Painful

but did not rise or discharge. The doctor thought best to cut it out, but I objected. It finally broke and discharged a great deal. The doctors said they could do nothing for it. Then the tumor began to rise inwardly and discharge. I read much about cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla and thought I would try it. Before I had finished taking one bottle I was much relieved. I continued the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking 12 bottles I was entirely cured. I am now well, have a good appetite and feel that I owe my life to Hood's Sarsaparilla." W. D. FORD.
